

WILLIAM TREFZ TOPS TICKET OF THE DEMOCRATS

Present Supervisor Renominated at Mass Convention at Turner Hall

GOOD MEN FOR ASSISTANTS

Speakers Call Upon Voters to Elect Them All and Help Break up County G. O. P. Machine.

For supervisor—William Trefz.
For assistant supervisors—W. C.
Peck, John F. Dindinger, Albert C.
Schmidt, Addison Rush.
For assessor—S. A. LaVanway.
For collector—Henry R. Wynes.
For town clerk—George W. Cox.
For constable—Herman Strum.

The foregoing nominees for the township election in Rock Island, April 7, were chosen by the democrats at a mass convention at Turner hall last evening. There was a good turnout of members of the party and much enthusiasm was shown. A number of ladies took part in the proceedings and during the evening one of them spoke briefly.

While there was competition for most of the places on the ticket the best of feeling prevailed and the losers accepted their defeat in good part and usually moved to make the nomination unanimous. The result is that the party will enter the campaign united and ready to work for the success of all the nominees.

Chairman Bert Corken of the township committee called the meeting to order and was selected for permanent chairman. Marx Harder, township secretary, filled that position in the convention.

Trefz Not Opposed.

There was no opposition to William Trefz for reelection as supervisor and he was unanimously chosen. For assistant supervisors there were placed in nomination W. C. Peck, 1202 For-tish street, John F. Dindinger, 2718 Seventh avenue, Gustav Blankenburg, 822 Twenty-ninth street, Albert C.
Schmidt, 219 Seventeenth street, and Addison Rush, 328 Eleventh street.

Thomas Casey and T. F. Wheelan were appointed tellers and the ballot resulted in Messrs. Peck, Dindinger, Schmidt and Rush receiving the large number of votes, Mr. Blankenburg losing out by but one.

For assessor, S. A. LaVanway, 1020 Fifteenth street, and Henry Besell, 845 Seventeenth street, were nominated, the former winning in the ballot.

Henry R. Wynes, 427 Forty-fifth street, and Chris Hubbe, 1225 Ninth avenue, were candidates for the nomination for collector and the former was returned winner.

Candidates Are Heard.

After the nominations had been made the candidates were called upon in turn and expressed their thanks to the convention and predicted the success of the ticket. Others who spoke were J. W. Cavanaugh, Justice Carl Kuehl and Mrs. W. C. Peck.

Mr. Cavanaugh made a stirring appeal for everybody to work for the success of the party in the county. It has been shown, he said, that the democrats are able to bring about needed reforms in the nation and the state and if they are given the opportunity they will prove able to handle affairs in the county equally well.
Present disgraceful conditions have grown up under republican domination and largely as a result of the complete sway of that party in county affairs. If the people will elect democrats to the board of supervisors the old machine will be broken up and a clean administration substituted.

Will Need Women's Aid.

Mrs. Peck said while it was the first experience in such work of the women who took part in the convention the men of the party will also find new experiences awaiting them in the campaign. Women will be needed to get out the votes of other women and in this the ladies present will find work to do. The speaker promised to do her full part.

The township committee was authorized to fill any vacancies which might occur prior to election. A finance committee was appointed composed of A. C. Edwards, J. W. Cavanaugh, E. E.
McDole, T. A. Pender, Thomas Casey and Carl Kuehl.

PORT BYRON DEMOCRATS HAVE TOWNSHIP TICKET

Democrats of Port Byron have nominated a full township ticket headed by James Normand for supervisor. Republicans and progressives are also in the field. The democratic nominees are:

Supervisor—James Normand.
Clerk—L. W. McBride.
Collector—William Keely.
Assessor—L. R. Filbert.
Commissioner of highways—Ora Johnson.

Constable—Ira Ziegler.
Library trustees—Miss Madge Schaefer, H. C. Metzgar.

Township central committee—William Banker, James F. Normand, H. C.
Schaefer.

BULL MOOSE NAME TOWNSHIP TICKET AT MASS MEETING

Miss Clara B. Hampton Selected as Candidate of Progressives For Supervisor.

FLIRT WITH "SUFF" VOTE

Mrs. Belle Jones and Miss S. Mae Culton Also Chosen For County Board and Collector.

PROGRESSIVE TICKET.
Supervisor—Miss Clara B. Hampton.
Assistant Supervisors—H. H. Un-verforth, Mrs. Belle Jones, F. O. Canedy and Lawrence E. Jones.
Assessor—Frank McMeekin.
Collector—Miss S. Mae Culton.
Town Clerk—George B. Garwood.

A mass convention, consisting of 11 bull moose, three mooseettes, and one lone newspaper man, was held last evening at 8 o'clock at the Master Builders' rooms in the Safety building, at which time a township ticket was selected and plans made to launch an energetic campaign.

The session which lasted a brief half hour, proved largely an attempt to flirt with the "new" citizens. Four of the eight candidates selected were women, but one, Miss Dina Ramser, drafted to make the race for assistant supervisor, refused the honor which the party sought to thrust upon her and a "mere" man, Lawrence E. Jones, a teacher at Augustana college, will run in her stead.

Miss Hampton For Supervisor.
For the first time in the history of Rock Island county a woman was named as a candidate for supervisor.
Miss Clara B. Hampton, well known club woman and charity worker, achieved that rare distinction last evening at the hands of the Roosevelt party, while there was placed on the ticket with her Mrs. Belle Jones, who is actively interested in the work of the Humane society, for assistant supervisor and Miss S. Mae Culton, prominent in musical and club circles, for collector. In other words, the plums all went to the gentle sex, while the "leavins" was all that the men could land.

Witter Presides.

W. M. Walker, chairman of the township committee, called the meeting to order. J. F. Witter was made temporary chairman and J. Clinton Searle, secretary. The convention call was read, after which the temporary organization was made permanent and a committee of three, composed of S. J. Collins, W. M. Walker and L. A. Grove, was named by the chair, to select candidates for the various township offices.

In making the report of the committee, Mr. Collins read the list of candidates quoted above and explained the failure to name a nominee for constable on the ground that "the women cannot vote for that office." The report of the committee was adopted without a dissenting vote and the list as read, declared the regular nominess of the party. Later, however, when Miss Ramser was communicated with, she withdrew and Mr. Jones was substituted.

H. H. Unverforth, who was named for assistant supervisor, is a business man and F. O. Canedy, who was also selected to make the race as a member of the county board, is an insurance agent. Frank McMeekin, candidate for assessor, is a former newspaper man of the city and George B.
Garwood, nominee for town clerk, is a carpenter and builder.

Plan Rally.

The nominating committee was authorized to fill any vacancy that might occur on the ticket. Charles Harris suggested that a conference of the

G. O. P. PRIMARY IS IN PROGRESS

Candidates For Township Office Being Selected By Vote of Party Members.

HARD TO GET OFFICIALS

Judges and Clerks Are Serving Without Pay For "Good of Cause." —Little Interest Chosen.

Republicans are holding a voluntary primary today for the purpose of selecting candidates for a township ticket, to be voted on April 7. Polling places in the seven wards of the city were opened this afternoon at 2 o'clock and will close at 7. Of course only members of the party are participating in the balloting.

Considerable difficulty was experienced in securing election officials.
Since there are no emoluments connected with the work and the men have to work "for the good of the party" the patriots who were willing to sacrifice their time to attend to it did not stampede each other in their haste to offer their services.

There is no opposition to A. J. Riess for supervisor while W. A. Frewert is the sole candidate for town clerk. For assistant supervisors the candidates are J. E. Larkin, S. R. Wright, Ezra Wilcher and Foster Coyne, and as four are to be named, the quartet will be the nominees.

There are three offices being contested for. John F. Moeller and J. C.
Simser are out for assessor; G. Albert

Johnson and D. J. Cleland for constable and John N. Huntton, Ernest Russ, S. S. Hull, Frank Singleman and J. L. Freeman, are after the col-lectorship.

Convention Tomorrow.

A ratifying convention will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at which time the candidates named at today's primary will be formally declared the party nominees.
